Subsequent Tabs

The image shows a vertical list of tabs for a job application form. The tabs are: General Information, Profiles, Competencies, Past Experience, and Driving Licences. The 'General Information' tab is currently selected and open. The 'Competencies' tab is expanded, showing a list of tasks:

- Adapting the mechanical part of an appliance
- Assembling the parts of the electrical or electronic product (components, wiring)
- Checking the components and preparing them in the right assembly order

General Information tab is initially open by default

Clicking another tab opens it and closes whatever tab you had opened before

General Advice

1 – Be organized. Record the applications you make – the date, position, contact info.

2 – Don't underestimate the power of a friendly follow-up, 1-2 weeks later.

3 – Broaden your search. Consider jobs you would do temporarily until you find better.

4 – Don't wait on an offer. Keep applying. Give yourself more chances to impress.

5 – Seek ways to improve yourself a tiny bit each day. Improve skills. Gain connections.

Thank you for your attention
